Stories of these encounters, taken from investigators' files, have been vividly depicted in television specials and motion pictures.

John Mack: Human Encounters with Aliens (excerpt) -- A Thinking Allowed DVD w/ Jeffrey Mishlove

Perhaps the most significant consequence of John Mack's work with abductees (those who believe they have had an encounter or encounters with alien beings) is forcing the scientific community to grudgingly accept that there may be a reality that cannot be measured in the material world; a reality that transcends the scientific process. Mack says that "the [west believes] that the only intelligence that exists in the universe comes out of the human brain, not God." [But] this phenomenon ...
