"Daniel Palmer hits all the right notes in his terrific debut novel, Delirious. Great characterizations, non-stop suspense, and a fiendishly clever plot. On top of that, this may be the most techno-savvy thriller yet. Delirious looks to be the first novel of a long and distinguished career. Terrific stuff."

This is my first Daniel Palmer book and I will read him again. DELIRIOUS is just too much for me. We have probably a genius computer guy who simply falls for everything. He is only selectively smart. His mental brother makes better decisions. Palmer can write but this was too much to take. Pretty fast paced but falls short.
