God: The Failed Hypothesis : how Science Shows that God ...

Humanity's "god model" is inconsistent with scientific observations. In my 2007 book God: The Failed Hypothesis; How Science Shows That God Does Not Exist, I applied the scientific process of hypothesis testing to the question of God. The common objection I heard was that the existence of God is not a scientific hypothesis.

Was God - the Failed Hypothesis worth the listening time? It's essential reading in this field and therefore worth the listen. The performance of the book did nothing for me other than make it so that I could absorb the book while driving. Any additional comments? Many of us have waited hopefully for Stenger's volumes to come to audiobook form.

Review: God—The Failed Hypothesis, by Victor Stenger. Albert June 19, 2015 October 23, 2016. This book is exasperating, because Stenger sets up a meta-analysis that games the entire discussion. Having built for himself the restrictive form in which his reasoning is to be poured, he ends up with exactly the structure he set out to build.

Whether writing about physics or religion, Dr. Stenger is a master teacher, and his skill as a teacher shows in this book. God: The Failed Hypothesis is his best book on religion and, of all his books, the most accessible. Many of his other books require one to dip into mathematical equations and think hard about physics.
