Three of Lottario's arias from Porpora's opera Carlo il Calvo, premièred in Rome in 1738, are here heard for the first time on disc. 'Se rea ti vuole il cielo' receives from Cenčić a performance of particular urgency, the voice surging with enhanced pointing of the words' meaning.

Opera con Brio

Handel's Lotario (1729) is an opera with several dubious distinctions: it bombed when it was first performed, it bombed when it was revived in the 1950s, and it remained, until 2004, the only Handel opera that had never been recorded. The reasons for these failures aren't hard to find.
