Instead he had one of those black American Express cards not available to general public. Gumball machines didn't have slots for those.

Quotes - The Compound

Before The Compound, I had read two S.A. Bodeen books: The Raft and The Detour. One I absolutely loved and the other I really, really did not. The Compound, though, is right up my alley. Not only do I know I'll get a good twist out of Bodeen, but I've been on a dystopian kick lately and this definitely fit the bill. Eli is an unlikable character.

The Compound 1 Sa Bodeen

The Compound by S.A. Bodeen is a nice dose of originality in the often cluttered genre of YA fiction. Eli has been in the compound for six years and in that time has learned to hate it, and himself.

When they entered the compound, believing there was a nuclear war, Eli was separated from his twin brother.
