The 2018 edition of The Investment Trust Handbook was the first in what will hopefully be a long-running series. It came out almost a year ago now but the good news is that it is available a free download. In fact, it's one of a number of free ebooks made available by Harriman House. The 2019 edition should be published on 10 December 2018.

this term more confusing than other types of trusts, since the true grantor for some purposes may not be the same as the person signing the trust instrument. If, for example, a parent creates a trust for the benefit of a child with a disability, and the parent's own money funds the trust, the parent is the grantor.
