Yanni in Words by David Rensin and Yanni (2003, Hardcover ...

Yanni is a genius and you should listen to his "Yanni- Live at Acropolis", "In my time" and "If I could tell you" to believe this. The chapter on creativity is so powerful and revealing. He shows you how he creates music by 'going into the black and surrendering to the unknown' and how you can do the same too.

Yanni in Words. A happy ending, not exactly! When he reached success, he had a setback. One, which he overcame, but one which made him look at life and all he had accomplished and made him realize he had to take care of himself. The story of Yanni and his success is one, which is motivational and inspiring.

Yanni's words of wisdom with regard to life, love, and creativity were interesting and at times thought-provoking (but not TOO thought-provoking; this was a light read). The best parts were at the beginning, chronicling Yanni's childhood, into his college years, and beyond into his early music career.
